God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way.
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
Undying love. . . . .

Pink tones are without question the most dominant in hibiscus. Possibly if all the pollen in Florida was placed in a mixing bowl, and applied promiscuously, 80% of the resulting seedlings would be pink. Like doubles, you will get all the pinks desired without trying. Brown is also dominant usually, while true yellow and red are difficult, and white practically as impossible as blue.

With the greatest of interest and anticipation I note crosses of brown shades X lavender shades will give blends of Beet root purple. This knowledge may give us a new break-through in color range. Remembering that when possible to use your Florida-developed cultivars as one parent, please get busy this spring with these two colors. Florida plants include SAN TOY, BLUE BOY, LAVENDER SKY, JOHN & JOSEPHINE TIPTON, MARGUERITE, BACUS, DELORES, MYRNA LOY, AURORA 7, LAVENDER CLOUD, REBEL, ACCIDENT, ROSALIE, GRANDMOTHER'S RING. List of exotics include ASATO 178, ASATO 144, BROWN DERBY, INEZ BLUE, ALA MOANA, JESSIE LUM, KITTY BEEBE, ROSE NOBRIGA, LADY BIRD JOHNSON, J. F. KENNEDY, KUNIA BEAUTY, JEAN CLARK, HAWAIIAN GIRL, JOAN LUM. I also remember NAVAHO, but cannot identify its origin from memory. Be among the first to bring these exciting new seedling shades to the shows.

Visualize your crosses and aim at a star. What about a double yellow miniature, A white SCHIZOPETALUS (to satisfy heart and desire of our President, Mr. Philo), or I will settle for a nice ruffled purple single, which you might name "PLUM GORGEOUS"

If your neighbor declares that he can't lend you his lawn mower this afternoon because he is going to use it himself, you'll know that he won't be using his golf clubs for a few hours.
